

One Firm Worldwide<sup>SM</sup>

MOSCOW

Jones Day's Moscow Office opened in 2004, following the Firm's introduction to the Russian market through our representation of Alfa Group and Access/Renova Group in the formation of TNK-BP, the largest M&A transaction in Russian history at the time.

Today our Moscow Office team combines cross-border transactional capability with in-depth knowledge of Russian law and industry experience in such sectors as oil and gas, telecommunications, financial services, mining and metals, aviation, manufacturing, and retail. The Moscow Office is fully integrated into our global organization of more than 2,500 lawyers in offices in North and South America, Europe, Asia, the Middle East, and Australia. This affords our clients not only a global reach, but also seamless access to the substantial legal resources of the Firm's practices, including Mergers & Acquisitions, International Litigation & Arbitration, Banking & Finance, Energy, Intellectual Property, Business Restructuring & Reorganization, Antitrust & Competition Law, Private Equity, Real Estate, Tax, and Capital Markets. A significant number of the Firm's lawyers assigned to these practices have substantial experience handling matters related to Russia.

Despite the Firm's relatively recent presence in Moscow, we have been involved in some of the most significant and high-profile cross-border M&A, finance, and capital markets transactions in the region. In Thomson Reuters' M&A league tables for year-end 2009, Jones Day ranked No. 1 for value of announced deals involving Russia.
