

REPORT PURSUANT TO THE EQUALITY ACT 2010 (GENDER PAY GAP INFORMATION) REGULATIONS

The Equality Act 2010 (Gender Pay Gap Information) Regulations require employers with 250 or more employees in the United Kingdom to publish a calculation of the difference in “average hourly rate pay” of men and women (“statutory differential”), along with certain other information. Jones Day’s success in supporting and promoting women lawyers is demonstrated by the fact that, at the date of this report, over 40% of our regions and offices are led by women, and women make up 41% of the Firm’s Partnership Committee and 39% of our Advisory Committee.
