Global Issues in Labor Law

Samuel Estreicher,
Dwight D. Opperman Professor of Law &
Director, Center for Labor and Employment Law, NYU

West is pleased to announce the forthcoming publication of Global Issues in Labor Law, a new supplementary coursebook by Professor Estreicher. It is scheduled to be published in May, and will be available for use in Fall 2007 classes.

This book is designed to facilitate the introduction of international, transnational, and comparative law issues into a labor law course. Emphasis throughout is on primary materials (statutes, Kennedy-McCain "guest worker" bill, ILO conventions, OECD guidelines, company codes of conduct, WTO rulings, AFL-CIO complaints, EU directives, etc.) that have been carefully edited to facilitate classroom discussion.

The book is very accessible for both professors and their law students. The book can be assigned or recommended as optional reading to supplement a domestic-only labor law course to advance the students' understanding of their own system and the kinds of issues they will face in an era of globalization. It can also serve as the text for a stand-alone course or seminar on global labor law. No additional statutory supplement is necessary.

The five chapters of the book are:

1. “Extraterritorial” Application of U.S. Labor Law
3. Labor and Trade
4. U.S.-Based Litigation Alleging Labor Rights Violations Abroad
5. Comparative Labor Law

A detailed table of contents is available on request.

Review Copy: In May, we will be automatically sending a complimentary review copy to full-time professors teaching Labor Law. If you have any questions, please email us at west_lawschool@thomson.com. Please refer to ISBN 978-0314-17163-4*.
REGISTER ON WESTACADEMIC.COM

The West Education Group wants the updates you receive from us to be as relevant as possible to the subject areas you teach. Register today on westacademic.com and access catalogs, review teaching materials, and request complimentary review copies online.

To register, simply:

1. Log on to www.westacademic.com
2. Select Faculty
3. Click on New User in the left-hand column
4. Complete and submit the registration form.