Petitioning the Court

The issuance of a summons for the offender to appear in court before the duty Magistrate Judge for identification of counsel and setting of further proceedings on April 13, 2015, at 9:30 am.

I, Michael McFarland, a Probation Officer employed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, solemnly affirm and declare, under penalty of perjury, that to the best of my information and belief, the facts set forth in this affidavit are true and correct. The factual affirmations made below are based on my personal knowledge, on official records or documents generated and maintained by my agency in the course of performing its functions, on official records or documents generated and maintained by other government agents or agencies in the course of performing their functions, or on information provided to me orally or electronically by employees or agents of other public agencies (information developed or acquired in the course of performing official agency functions).

Charge NumberViolation

One

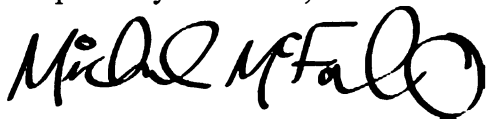

There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated special condition number one, which states that AU Optronics Corporation shall develop, adopt, and implement an effective compliance and ethics program. Such a program shall establish standards and procedures to prevent and detect criminal conduct. AU Optronics Corporation shall notify its employees and shareholders of its conviction and its effective compliance and ethics program. All aspects of the program shall be reported to the probation officer as directed and quarterly reports detailing the organization's progress shall be submitted to ensure compliance.

As of March 19, 2015, the corporation has failed to implement an effective compliance and ethics program. In that, the corporation has not hired a full-time Chief of Antitrust Compliance officer, and has not devoted meaningful time or attention to overseeing the antitrust compliance program. The Company's Board has met with the part-time compliance officer for between 30 and 60 minutes over a course of 17 months. The Board has not exercised sufficient oversight and monitoring of the Company's antitrust compliance program, and is only now implementing certain basic compliance measures and recommendations that had been previously proposed by the monitor. Moreover, AUO and its part-time Chief of Antitrust Compliance have not proactively monitored the compliance program or responded to detected risks of noncompliance.

Evidence in support of this charge can be obtained in the probation officer's case notes, specifically dated March 19, 2015, and in the 9th Quarterly Report of the AUO Monitor.

Based on the foregoing, there is probable cause to believe that AU Optronics Corporation violated the conditions of Probation.

Respectfully submitted,
